A BILL TO PUNISH GRAVE ROBBERS When, a short lime ago, several graves in the compleries of this c ty were robbed of their comtests it was found that the laws of Virginia provided no adequate junishment for those suity of the crime. One of the violators of the graves a entioned, after being convicted in the Corporation Court, could only, under the law be sentered to a few months in the city jail, there to pess the time idly at the expense of the who before the establishment of the whipping post, committed petit largery for the sole purpose of spending the winter in jail. To remedy the matter by providing a punishment that will prevent the violation of graves, not only in this city but throughout the State, Senstor Smith yesterday introduced in the State Senste a bill to amend the present law on the subject providing that "If any person, unlawfury, disinter or (isplace a did human body, or any part of a dead tumen body, which shall have been dens ted in any wault or other burist place, he shall be de med guilty of a felony, and shall be the tin in any way, hence the Coffee is neither confined in the penitentiary for not less than five black nor bitter. Lor more than ten years."
